

ASSOCIATION FOR EVOLUTIONARY ECONOMICS (AFEE)
* AFEE President's Open Newsletter – 30 September 2013 ****

Greetings AFEE members and others,

There is a lot of new information to convey to you about the January 2014 AFEE at ASSA Program in Philadelphia, the 2014 Veblen-Commons Award recipient, the 2014 Street Scholar, the 2014 Ayres Scholar, voting for the 2014-15 President-Elect and Board of Directors, the Authors' Exhibition, the planning of a new AFEE conference, plus other matters. First let me introduce Sam Bowles as the 2014 Veblen-Commons Award recipient; Svetlana Kirdina, the 2014 Clarence Ayres Scholar; and Eugenia Correa as the 2014 James Street Scholar.

SAM BOWLES – 2014 VEBLLEN-COMMONS RECIPIENT

Samuel Bowles is Research Professor in the Behavioral Sciences Program at the Santa Fe Institute, USA. He has made contributions to the coevolution of preferences, institutions and behaviour (including culture), plus the causes and results of inequality. He will be presenting an address at the AFEE Veblen-Commons Award luncheon in Philadelphia. <http://tuvalu.santafe.edu/~bowles/> (I wish to thank Veblen-Commons Award Committee members, Jim Peach (Chair), John Henry, Svetlana Kirdina, John Marangos and Cecilia Winters for their good work.)

SVETLANA KIRDINA – 2014 CLARENCE AYRES SCHOLAR

Svetlana Kirdina is Head of the Department for Evolution of Social and Economic Systems, Institute of Economics, Russian Academy of Sciences - RAS, Moscow, Russia. She has 190 publications in English and Russian. Her main research interests lie in the fields of social and economic theory, comparative institutional analysis, and heterodox economics. Svetlana has recently been working on a macro-sociological hypothesis of 'institutional matrices' in numerous articles and books. She will be presenting a paper at the AFEE at ASSA meetings in Philadelphia. <http://www.kirdina.ru>

EUGENIA CORREA – 2014 JAMES STREET SCHOLAR

Eugenia Correa is Professor in finance and development at the Mexico National University. She is member of the Mexican Academy of Science and Vice-president of the Political Economy Academy and she was honored with the Economics Research Award by UNAM. She published 30 books and more than 130 contributions in journals and books. Her main research interests are in macroeconomic finance, feminist economics and institutional change. (Many thanks to the Street Scholar Committee members, including Wesley Colin Marshall (Chair), Bruno Gandlgruber, Ilene Grabel, John Hall and James Sturgeon for their good work.)

ELECTION FOR AFEE PRESIDENT-ELECT AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Nominations Committee has finalized the candidates for the upcoming AFEE elections. The nominations (approved by the Board of Directors) are as follows:

- For President-Elect: Fred Lee, University of Missouri—Kansas City
- For International Member, Board of Directors: Kosta Josifidis, University of Novi Sad, Serbia; and Svetlana Kirdina, Russian Academy of Sciences
- For 2 US Members of BOD: Fiona Maclachlan, Manhattan College, USA; Mayo Toruno, California State University; Tonia Warnecke, Rollins College, USA; and Timothy Wunder, University of Texas.

Voting for these candidates will occur later in the year. (Many thanks to the Nomination Committee members, Anna Klimina (Chair), Sebastian Berger, Bill Dugger, Pascal Petit, and Zdravka Todorova, for their good work.)

2014 AFEE AT ASSA MEETINGS IN PHILADELPHIA

Janet Knoedler (AFEE President-Elect) has organized an outstanding program for the AFEE at ASSA meetings in Philadelphia, 2-5 January 2014; while Teresa Rowell (AFEE Coordinator) is doing ongoing work for the special events at these meetings. There are 12 sessions (including one in association with the ASE), including topics such as Macro Policy and Financial Stability; Debt and Deficit Policies; Social Entrepreneurship; Inequalities; Inequality and Stability; The Institutionalist Movement; Enabling Myths; plus 6 sessions on Social Control (re Processes; Enabling Myths; Modern Economy; John Commons; Sustainability; and Financialized Capitalism). The AFEE at ASSA Program is shown below in the Appendix.

MEMBERSHIP MEETING IN PHILADELPHIA -- AUTHORS' EXHIBITION

The membership meeting will discuss General Business and celebrate the Ayres and Street Scholars and Conference Research Awardees (plaques etc). AFEE is also planning an Author's Exhibition at this meeting (3 Jan 2014, 4.45pm, Regency Ballroom, C1). AFEE would like to celebrate the recent publication of research within our community. If you would like to participate as a recently published author (book, articles, etc) please inform me (gperu.ohara@gmail.com) and Eric Hake (erhake@catawba.edu) our General Secretary by 31 October 2013. Bring copies of your recent or upcoming publications for display in Philadelphia as we mingle with AFEE members and interested publishers over food and drink (pending 'BOD monies'). Also consider this an opportunity to pitch book topics with publishers and members and connect names with faces. Chris Brown, Journal of Economic Issues Editor, will be announcing his Editor's Choice Award for the best JEI article for 2013 at this meeting.

NEW AFEE CONFERENCE?

We are also in the early planning phase of organizing a new (annual?) conference, perhaps during an August/September/October long weekend. There would likely be fewer constraints on the number of sessions, so senior and junior scholars along with PhD students will participate, in a more leisurely environment than the ASSAs. Selected papers from the conference will likely be published in a special volume. More details on this may follow the Board of Directors meeting in Philadelphia, January 2014. (The Ad Hoc 'Conferences' and 'AFEE Governance' Committees are continuing their work on this and other matters.)

The Membership Committee (T. Warnecke [Chair], P. Arestis, F. Maclachlan, A. Olienik and E. Tymoigne) and the Publications Committee (P. O'Hara [Chair], R. Adkisson, G. Atkinson, W. Elsner, J. Galbraith and J. Knoedler) have completed their reports, which have been considered and will be discussed by the Board in Philadelphia. Other committees' activities are still in progress.

Do join (or re-join) AFEE to receive the Journal of Economic Issues and participate more fully in our activities now:
